

Summer Writing Camp

Grades 3-8

August 13th through August 24th

Monday-Wednesday 10:00AM-2:00PM

Students will gain practice in their academic writing skills as well as their orator and presentation skills. This camp will work to sharpen the academic writing of these young students and give them a fun way of viewing writing and communication.

Our Vision

Here at EFTY our focus is children. We want to help develop young, independent, respectful, and knowledgeable leaders in order to create a better environment and society for our future.

By joining EFTY, our aim is that we will supply them with the tools and knowledge to help structure and implement those changes; not only in their home environments but also in the community as a whole. At EFTY, young adolescents will receive the following: teachings regarding life-skill core values, educational and tutoring assistance, resource and networking development, survival and sustainability life skills, internship opportunities, as well as career development skills which will include the following but is not limited to: cooking, business, mechanical, computer programming, and health classes.

Camp objectives

1. Increase Academic Achievement through tutoring and hands on writing activities.
2. Provide Career Development through express writing, career exploration and skill development.
3. Deliver Life Skill Training and Coaching to students through writing and presenting by focusing on guidance, personal empowerment and improvement to aspects of their life.
4. Supply Mentoring Partnerships focusing on survival and sustainability skills essential for overcoming adversity.
